Dear Mr. Houston:

STATOTHR

Thank you very much for your letter of June 6 in regard to [REDACTED]. I am sorry if I got the facts mixed up in my letter to [REDACTED], but having received the facts third hand, you will, I am sure, readily appreciate the situation.

STATOTHR

[REDACTED] apparently is the apple of the Judge Advocate General's eye as his administrative officer has arranged for him to be stationed temporarily at Governor's Island until his family situation has cleared up. He will then probably be sent to Washington.

As you state, even though the CIA might like to get their hands on him, the Army apparently would be most reluctant to let him go.

I have passed your letter on to [REDACTED] and I am sure he would like to look you up the next time he is in Washington. He was, I believe, two or three years behind you in the Virginia Law School.

STATOTHR

I want to thank you again for your most thoughtful consideration of this matter. Please tell [REDACTED] when you see him that if he does not give me a ring for lunch the next time he is in town, we will take all of our business away from the City Bank Farmers Trust Company.

It might be worthwhile to pick up the check on this, as do the Bank's CFR's prohibit entertainment of lawyers.

Sincerely yours,

JGJ, Jr/AS
